To whom it may concern:

I'm writing this e-mail to voice my opinion that the current settlement in the Microsoft trial is insufficient. It's been stated before and found that Microsoft is a monopoly, and that it has participated in unlawful use of that monopoly. I feel that the settlement with Microsoft does not significantly punish the company for its practices, nor keep the company from abusing it's position in the future. I hope the the courts will come to the same conclusion.
